

"Thank you for everything thank you so much for the loving dogs that we have send a picture also of Clark who unfortunately passed away a couple years ago that we also rescued from you guys his body just gave out but Smith and Sierra have been wonderful and my son has never been so grateful I'll just send you a meme of my phone saying you're breathtaking LOL thank you so much me Smith and Sierra are going to Missouri I'm getting out of the military but thank you so much for everything I wanted a German Shepherd but Smith has been wonderful I felt so horrible the Smith family has three legs in the moment I saw him I wanted him even though he's not what I wanted is everything I could ever dreamed of he's such a Living Boy in cheers very good too and I really miss Clark but rest in peace good boy San Antonio Humane Society thank you for everything you left me the three good dogs once in heaven right now will be taking the other two back home with me to Missouri thank you so much for everything you've made me and my son very happy.

Thank you so much for everything I really do appreciate it and thank you so much for these wonderful dogs it's unfortunate that Clark passed away because of his injuries but at least we gave him the best rest of his life and Sierra is no longer aggressive she's the sweetest girl ever now and she loves everybody and Smith is just lazy as hell but he still stands on his front two legs when he pees LOL thanks again you all have a good one and again thanks for everything.
