Karma (formerly Twilight)

here! Just wanted to let y'all know that I've been the goodest girl since I came home to my new family. My baby brother and I love each other so much - we play and give each other kisses all day long! I've also won over my grumpy grandma of a big sister, and now we all have fun together!”

I've eaten lots of good food and yummy treats, and I run zoomies in the dog park by my house. I love sleeping in own crate and put myself to bed every night. I love my pack - but I miss y'all, too, so I'll stop by and visit sometime! ♡”
