

SUCCESS STORIES!

“

Here is our update on Schweppes, now known as Leviathan! We call him Levi for short. I am convinced that all he needs in life is hugs and kisses. This boy is the biggest sweetheart I have ever met. So far, he has a very mellow temperament and likes to follow us all around the house.”

“

His toy “Sharky” is his new best friend, and he carries him wherever he goes. He also is fond of blankets. When we cover him, he grabs the end of the blanket and carries it with him, it is soooo adorable.

Overall, he is adjusting well to home life! Thank you for all your help!”
