

Success

Stories!

“

My daughter adopted Clyde when he was three years old about four years ago it's just my husband and I at home since she is married with children of her own so needless to say he instantly became our new baby and is spoiled rotten he loves snuggling in any blanket and going for evening car rides to McDonald's for his nuggets everyone loves him wherever we take him. He is our joy!" - Charmin

