"Today is the 1yr anniversary of Lucy's Gotcha Day! When we first met at SAHS she was a scared/ shy little pup by the given name of "Aunt Bam" and now she's a rambunctious/ happy little girl named Lucy. She has brought so much light and love back into my life after having said goodbye to my 17yr old pup and I swear she's just like him, like she was meant for me. We are enjoying our little life together and she is as spoiled and loved as can be."

"Thank you SAHS for all that you do to unite furbabies young and old with their furever families/homes, you do beautiful work. Lucy and I couldn't be happier or more grateful. Much love and Happy Holidays to you all."
