“Rocky (formerly Paolo) actually has been super chill at home, even being around my almost 3 y/o. He passed all of his labs and is in excellent condition, according to the vet. He is not anxious at all, doesn't bark and is just loving. He is truly amazing and we love him already. I enclosed a pic of him and my daughter for you all to have a peace of mind. He is truly in good hands.”

Best wishes!
