“We’ve had a fantastic time welcoming Charlie (formerly known as Lazlo) into our little family. There has been many naps, bunches of toys and treats, trips to dog parks, and getting to know his new older brother Bo, cousin Xóchitl, and our ever growing circle of friends. We can’t wait for all of yall to meet him; we’re sure he’ll melt your hearts just as he did ours. Look forward to more Bo and Charlie adventures to come! Thanks to the fantastic staff at @sahumane for helping to rescue Charlie and for their very thorough adoption process. Veronica
