Stories!

“Hi there,

I am sharing my adoption story of my Chihuahua, Chamomile (now named Nyla). I adopted her early last month and when I met her I knew that she was meant to be my girl, so I adopted her that evening. Nyla is my only fur child and she is so very spoiled. I take her to a lot of places in my dog purse and she is truly the star of the show everywhere we visit. I learned that she was transferred to the Humane Society from a shelter located in Von Ormy, Texas, where I used to live on a ranch with my late grandfather. I had no plans on getting a dog that day, but something told me to visit anyway, and I believe she was sent to me from my grandpa (corny, coincidence? Maybe.) Regardless of if she was sent to me or not, she truly saved my life. She is the reason I wake up every morning, and I am so very grateful to be her human mama. Thank you for your beautiful staff for helping me and making the adoption process smooth and quick. Thank you for taking excellent care of her and for everything you guys do.

Signed, one happy dog mom.
