“ I have an update on Oyster, six years after her adoption! She’s still happy and very healthy. In addition to a dog sister Pearl, she now has three feline siblings! After a month in our new house, she’s making friends with Mew, my partner’s tuxedo cat who’s about the same age (~12) as her. She hasn’t slowed down—she’s still the first out of bed in the morning and the last to follow me to bed at night, but that’s the way I like it. She’s still social and loves every human she meets!

We moved up to Michigan in 2021 after I left the Navy and she isn’t a fan of the cold winters here, but she loves the summers and our new backyard and racing Pearl up and down the fence line.
